

Religious Education – World Religion – Christianity

Our new key question: Does God want Christians to look after the world?

Learning Objective: We are learning to re-tell the Christian Creation story and to explore how this influences how Christians behave towards nature and the environment.

When we started our learning journey, these were our questions?

What / who is God?

What/Who are Christians?

How can we look after the world?

What is the Creation story about?

Does God want Christians to look after the world?

Main Beliefs

The Creation Story

On the first day, God made light ("day") and dark ("night").
 On the second day, God made the sky.
 On the third day, God created the land and the seas. He also created plants and trees.
 On the fourth day, God created the sun, the moon and the stars.
 On the fifth day, God created birds and sea creatures.
 On the sixth day, God created animals to fill the earth. God also created humans to enjoy and care for all that He had made.
 On the seventh day, God rested.

On the seventh day, God rested. Sunday is seen by Christians as the seventh day of the week and is a day for rest and reflection - this often includes going to church.
